George Frederick Bowen fonds. - ca. 1860-1896. - 7 textual records. - 40 plans.

Biographical sketch:

Born in Quebec City on 19 March 1811, George Frederick Bowen was the son of Edward Bowen, politician and Chief Justice, and Eliza Davidson. In 1843, he married Eliza Jessie Wyatt. They had seven children. Bowen studied law in Quebec and was admitted to the Bar in 1832. In 1835, he opened a law practice in Sherbrooke. From 1844 to 1887, he was Sheriff of the District of St. Francis. From 1887 to 1898, he was Prothonotary of the District, jointly with Hubert C. Cabana. Other positions he held include Justice of the Peace, Chairman of Quarter Sessions and Commissioner in Bankruptcy. As well, Bowen was Mayor of Sherbrooke from 1852 to 1854, worked with a number of Sherbrooke-area associations, and pursued a military career. George Frederick Bowen died in Sherbrooke on 26 April 1898.

Scope and content:

The fonds contains source material on the granting of lands in the Eastern Townships in the 19th century. The fonds is comprised of the following series: Plan Division Register (ca. 1860) and Miscellaneous Documents (1875-1895).

Paul Desruisseux fonds. - 1928-1984. - 0.45 m of textual records and other documents.

Biographical sketch:

Lawyer, businessman, and public figure Paul Desruisseux was born in Sherbrooke on 1 May 1905 to Geoffrey Desruisseux and Sarah Gauthier. In 1945, he married Céline Duchesne. They had four children. Paul Desruisseux studied at the École du Sacré-Coeur and the Séminaire St-Charles-Borromée in Sherbrooke, the law school of Université de Montréal, the Babson Institute, and Harvard University. In 1934, he was admitted to the Quebec Bar. The following year, he opened an office in Sherbrooke and practised law there until 1961. Desruisseux was also a businessman who founded and managed many companies. In 1955, he and Alphée Gauthier bought La Tribune Ltée, which owned La Tribune newspaper, radio stations CHLT and CKTS, and CHLT television station. In 1966, after many strikes and conflicts, La Tribune Ltée was sold to Québec Télémedia Inc. The same year, Desruisseux was appointed to the Senate by Governor-General Georges Vanier at the request of Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson. Paul Desruisseux sat on the boards of many humanitarian organizations such as the Canadian Red Cross Society in Sherbrooke and the Canadian Association for Retarded Children. In 1964, Desruisseux was awarded an honorary doctorate of law by Université de Sherbrooke. Paul Desruisseux died in 1982, two years after retiring from the Senate, following a lengthy illness.

Letter from Edward Hale to his wife, 1846, P072

Edward Hale

P072

Edward Hale fonds. - 1846. - 1 textual record.

Biographical sketch:

Politician and public figure, Edward Hale was born in Quebec City on 6 December 1800 or 1801 (depending on sources). He was the son of the Honourable John Hale, Member of the Legislative Council from 1808 to 1838, and Elizabeth Frances Amherst. Hale married Eliza Cecilia Bowen in Sherbrooke on 10 March 1831. They had seven children: Elizabeth Frances (1831), Edward John (1833), Eliza Sarah (1835), Mary (1837), Lucy Amherst (1839), Edward Chaloner (1844), and William Amherst (1847). Hale studied in a private school in Kensington, England during the 1810s. He returned to Quebec in 1820 and entered the office of the Committee of Audit as Secretary, a post he held for three years. From 1823 to 1828 he lived in India as private secretary to his uncle, Lord Amherst, who was then its governor general. In 1833 he bought property in the Township of Orford, where he settled with his family the following year. Hale was active mainly in the areas of economic development and politics. He owned several properties in the Townships and was involved in the development of railroads and local industry. From 1865 to 1875, he was President of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of the Counties of Stanstead and Sherbrooke. Hale's political activities included sitting on the Special Council of Lower Canada in 1839 and presided over the District Council of Sherbrooke in 1840. In 1841, he was elected to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada to represent Sherbrooke, and held the seat until 1847. In 1867, he was named Member to the Legislative Council of the Province of Quebec for the Division of Wellington and held the seat until his death in 1875. Hale was also Chancellor of University of Bishop's College from 1866 to 1875. He died in Quebec City on 26 April 1875. He is buried in Sherbrooke.

Scope and content:

The fonds contains source material on Edward Hale's professional and family activities in May 1846. It consists of a single letter from Hale to his wife, dated from Montreal on 16 May 1846. In the letter, Hale mentions his children and writes of his daily activities and his meetings with friends and colleagues. He also mentions that he will soon bring home some paintings.

Biographical sketch:

With their establishment of the People's Telephone Company and the A.C. Skinner Ltd. jewellery boutique, the Skinner family certainly made their mark on Sherbrooke's history. Carlos Young Skinner (1835-1915) was the first member of the Skinner family to come to the Eastern Townships. Son of Nathan Skinner (1808-1882) and Emeline Ensign (1804-1884), Carlos was born in Albany, New York, but moved to Derby Center, Vermont while still young. At the age of twenty, he moved to Stanstead to learn the trade of watch making and later furthered his training in Lennoxville. When he was still only 24, in 1859, Carlos Y. Skinner moved to Waterloo, Quebec to open his own jewellery store. In 1860, he married Emily Elliot (1839-1913) and they had three children: Jennie (1861-1943), Nelson Webster (1869-1870), Albert Carlos (1871-1964). Emily Elliot was from Hatley and had been one of the first principals at the Dunham Ladies' College, she was also an active member in the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

In 1878, Carlos Skinner moved his family to Sherbrooke to open his second jewellery store. Reportedly, Carlos was a man who enjoyed inventing things and it was not long before he had patented a few of his own telephone devices and became the Bell Telephone Company's first representative in Sherbrooke. However, after a falling out with Bell, Carlos organized his own telephone company called first the Sherbrooke Telephone Association. Later, in 1896, a supplementary charter was issued, calling it the People's Telephone Company and, finally, in 1912, was renamed the Eastern Townships Telephone Company with service that stretched all the way from Rock Island to Danville. After Carlos Skinner's retirement from the presidency of the Eastern Townships Telephone Company, Sylvester Jencks, Jennie Skinner's husband, was elected as president for a time and the title was later passed on to Albert Carlos Skinner. Carlos Skinner and his People's Telephone Company have been credited with helping to regulate the price of telephone service in the Eastern Townships by creating competition for the region's major provider, the Bell Telephone Company.

With the telephone company occupying much of his time, Carlos Skinner sold his jewellery store to his son, Albert Carlos Skinner, who saw the store grow quite prosperous under his direction. Albert Skinner married Margaret Cowan in 1899 and they had five children: Ruth G. (b. 1900), Carlos C. (b. 1901), Lois M. (b. 1903), Neil A. (b. 1906), and Hugh S. (b. 1908). Later, Albert incorporated the business as A.C. Skinner Ltd. with two of his sons, Neil and Carlos C. in 1928. In 1935, Neil and Carlos C. would buy out their father's interests in the store. Ten years later Carlos C. bought the family business from his brother and went into business with a Mr. Nadeau in 1954.

The mark that the Skinner family left on the history of Sherbrooke has been commemorated in a historical mural, located on the corner of Frontenac and Dufferin Streets, depicting the storefronts of 'Boutique Skinner' and the People's Telephone Company.

Scope and content:

The fonds contains source material on the genealogy of the Skinner family. It includes genealogical information on other families: Elliot, Callan, Bowen, Cowan, Dunsmore. P173

Elvyn M. Baldwin family fonds. - copied 1832-2002. - 0.74 m of textual records and other documents.

Biographical sketch:

The family of Levi Baldwin immigrated to Canada from Connecticut, USA, in 1799. They settled in Barnston Township where he was a farmer. Levi Baldwin (d. 1843) was first married to Experience Goff (d. 1815) and, second, to Abigail Mills (d. 1830). The children by his first marriage were: Huldah, Lotes, Richard, Deborah and Patience. The children by his second marriage were: Elizabeth, John Percival and Huldah. John Percival Baldwin married Jeanette Baker and they settled near the outlet of Lake Lyster. He became a very successful businessman, having established a sawmill on the Lake. John's youngest son was Willis Keith (W. K.) Baldwin, who married Lill Ferrin from Holland, Vermont. In his lifetime, W. K. was well-regarded and successful in business as well as politics. While many of the descendants of W. K. and Lill have left, a number still remain in Baldwin's Mills and in the Townships.

The family of Hezekiah May (1775-1857) immigrated to Canada from Vermont, USA, in 1806. They settled in Stanstead Township where he was a farmer. Hezekiah was married to Sarah (Sally) Hayes (1784-1871) and they had eleven children together: Electa, Sylvester, Hannah, Willard, Lyman, Lorenzo, Ruby, Louisa, James, Mary Ann and Maria. Sylvester May moved from Stanstead Township to Barnston Township, near Lake Lyster. Sylvester's oldest son, Darius, also a farmer, married Emma Stevens. One of their daughters, Ruth, married Harold Baldwin, which is how the Baldwins and Mays are related.

Scope and content:

The fonds contains primary source information on the family life; social, religious and economic activities; and education of various members of the Baldwin family, May family and other relatives and friends during the 19th and 20th centuries. It also contains historical information on the Stanstead County and Barnston Township areas, as well as genealogy. The majority of the records were produced in the Eastern Townships, many come from the New England states as well as across Canada and worldwide. It consists primarily of personal and business correspondence, postcards and photographs, maps, historical notes and family history. The fonds is comprised of the following series: Baldwin family (1844-2000), May family (1863-[199-?]), Other Correspondence ([18--]-1958), Genealogy (1832-1999), Photographs ([186-?]-1995) and Subject Files and Historical Research (1842-2002).

Notes:

Title based on request of the donor.

The fonds also contains 582 photographs, 584 postcards, 4 drawings and 27 maps. Included among the photographs are 2 ambrotypes, 2 daguerrotypes, 3 polyester negatives, 4 cellulose acetate negatives, 36 tintypes and 23 cellulose nitrate negatives.

The documents were donated by Eva Baldwin Morton and Louise Baldwin in 2008.

Correspondence written by one individual to another individual who both appear in the classification system has been organized with the author of the correspondence. Envelopes have been preserved only when they contained pertinent information on the author or on the date of the letter.

The documents are in English.

Willis Keith Baldwin. - 1877-1941. - 0.06 m of textual records. - 2 postcards.

Biographical sketch:

Willis Keith Baldwin, better known as simply W. K., was born 17 March 1857 in Barnston and was the youngest son of John Percival Baldwin and Jeanette Baker. W. K. was educated at Stanstead Wesleyan College and appointed Justice of the Peace in 1913. Included among his numerous business and political activities, he succeeded his father as owner of the Baldwin family's mills, was a director of both the Canadian Crocker Wheeler Company and Southern Canada Power, contributed funds to construct roads in the Townships of Barnston and Stanstead, and was an extensive land owner throughout the Eastern Townships and Vermont. He also was elected as a Member of Parliament as a Liberal from 1917 to 1930, when he retired from politics. W. K. Baldwin married Lill Mead Ferrin (1859-1935), of Holland, Vermont, 17 March 1881. They had two children: Harold Ferrin and Mead Haskell. W. K. Baldwin was murdered at his general store by Kenneth Brown, on 18 April 1935. They are both buried at Lakeview Cemetery in Baldwin's Mills.
