

BIOBIBLIOGRAPHIES / NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

BENOIT-ANTOINE BACON is currently Chair of Psychology at Bishop's University. He is also a member of the Centre de Recherche en Neuropsychologie et Cognition (CERNEC) and the Groupe Interdisciplinaire de Recherche en Psychologie Appliquée aux Systèmes Sociaux (GIRPASS).

MATHEW BELLHOUSE-KING graduated from Bishop's University with an Honours Degree in Psychology in 2007. He is currently working for Social Services in Hawaii, USA.

ANNIE BENOIT completed a BA (honours profile) in psychology at Bishop's in 2007. She is currently working on her Master's degree in community health at the University of Sherbrooke. She is employed as a research agent for diverse research projects on workplace stress, women's health and parenting.

CLAUDE CHARPENTIER has been teaching at Bishop's University for the past five years in the Psychology Department. Dr. Charpentier's most recent research activities include an assessment of the need for mental health services in English for the Estrie's Anglophone community, and an exploration of the psychological factors underlying recent debates on reasonable accommodation.

MYRIAM CHIASSE graduated from Bishop's University with an Honour's Degree in Psychology. In addition to working as a counselor for a community-based organization in Sherbrooke and as a research assistant on different projects, she is presently enrolled as a graduate student at Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières in their Psychology PhD program.

ANTON DE MAN has been a member of the Department of Psychology at Bishop's University since 1979. He teaches abnormal psychology, personality, adolescent development, and the psychology of exceptional children. His research interests are in the areas of suicidal behaviour, parent-child relationships and personality development, and the effects of natural and human-induced disasters.

EMMALIE FILION graduated from Bishop's University with an Honour's Degree in Psychology. While raising a young family, she is presently a graduate student at Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières in their Clinical PsyD program.

STEVE HARVEY is Dean of the Williams School of Business, Bishop's University. He has published and presented his scholarship extensively on topics relating to human resources, management, and workplace stress and well-being. His research has been funded by several agencies, including in recent years, the Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR), Institut de recherche Robert-Sauvé en santé et en sécurité du travail (IRSST), Eastern Townships Research Centre, and the Fonds québécois de la recherche sur la société et la culture (FQRSC).

NORMAN JONES is a Professor and the Chair of the Department of Environmental Studies and Geography at Bishop's University. His research interests include flood hazards in the Eastern Townships of Quebec, and the history of glaciations in the Rocky Mountains of Alberta. Recent publications focused on the recessional history and glaciology of a valley glacier in Banff National Park, and the recent history of flooding in southern Quebec.

GUY LAPERRIÈRE est professeur au département d'histoire de l'université de Sherbrooke depuis plusieurs années et spécialiste d'histoire religieuse du Québec aux 19e et 20e siècles. Il a publié en 1986 une Bibliographie d'histoire des Cantons de l'Est et a par la suite été membre du conseil d'administration du Centre de recherche des Cantons de l'Est de 1987 à 1991. Il vient d'écrire une Histoire des Cantons de l'Est à paraître en 2009 dans la collection Les régions du Québec, Histoire en bref, de l'Institut québécois de recherche sur la culture. Courriel : Guy.Laperriere@USherbrooke.ca

JACK LITTLE is acting chair of the History Department at Simon Fraser University. His most recent book is Loyalties in Conflict: A Canadian Borderland in War and Rebellion, 1812-1840, published by the University of Toronto Press. He is currently researching the life and career of Sir Henri-Gustave Joly de Lotbinière, pioneer conservationist, Quebec premier, and Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia.

MEGAN POPE graduated from Bishop's University with an Honour's Degree in Psychology. She is presently living in Montreal and is working as a research assistant at the Douglas Hospital.

LIONEL G. STANDING has been a member of the Psychology Department at Bishop's University since 1969. He is currently teaching social, health, cognitive, and experimental psychology. His research interests in social and cognitive psychology include attitudes, drinking behavior, psychophysics, and visual/verbal memory.

DALE STOUT is a Professor at Bishop's University and teaches in the Psychology Department. Although his research interests are centred on the history of psychology and statistics, his research in the past few years has become more community based. Dr. Stout not only engages in, but encourages his students to develop, research that will contribute to a better understanding of our Eastern Townships communities.